

M. Aaron Spencer
Member

(865) 215-1000 (Office)

(865) 215-1001 (Fax)

(865) 215-1032 (Direct)

aspencer@wmbac.com

Primary Practice Areas

- Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights
- Business Litigation and Commercial Law
- Commercial Borrowing
- Landlord & Tenant
- Real Estate

Education

- Stetson University, J.D., 2009
- University of Tennessee, B.A., 2006

Bar Admissions

- Tennessee, 2011
- Florida, 2009
- U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Tennessee, 2010
- U. S. District Court, Middle District of Tennessee, 2015

Accolades

- BV Distinguished Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell
- Voted Top Attorney by his peers in Cityview Magazine

M. Aaron Spencer Biography

M. Aaron Spencer is an member with the firm. His primary areas of practice include commercial litigation and representation of creditors and litigants in the United States Bankruptcy Courts. Prior to joining Woolf McClane, he worked for a private practice in Tampa, Florida, and another Knoxville firm where he primarily represented Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustees and creditors in the United States Bankruptcy Courts.

Mr. Spencer is a native of Knoxville, Tennessee. He graduated from The University of Tennessee in 2006 with a B.A. in political science. He earned his J.D. from Stetson University College of Law in 2009 and attained membership in Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity.

During law school, Mr. Spencer served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Catherine Peek McEwen, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Middle District of Florida. In addition, he was a teaching fellow for the Research and Writing Department, and was a bankruptcy law research assistant to Associate Dean Theresa J. Pulley Radwan. Mr. Spencer also received the American Bankruptcy Institute's Medal for Excellence in Bankruptcy Studies and the William F. Blews Pro Bono Service Award.

Mr. Spencer is currently licensed to practice law in Florida and Tennessee. He is a member of the Florida Bar Association, the Tennessee Bar Association and the Knoxville Bar Association.